

Carolyn Chin

CEO

Cebiz

CAROLYN CHIN is CEO of Cebiz, a consulting and investment firm. She is also Chairman of the Board and new CEO of Larasan Pharmaceuticals, a developer of new painkillers. She is co-founder/faculty member for "On Board Bootcamps," designed to assist primarily women/minorities to join corporate boards (featured in Business Week). Carolyn has served on over 30 boards, advisory boards and commissions.

She was US CEO/Board Member for Singlepoint, a digital security firm (2007-2008). She also served as Chairman of the Board of CommTouch (NASDAQ) (anti-SPAM technology) from 2001-2004. From 2001-2002, she served as Chairman and interim CEO for KindMark (e-philanthropy and automated giving technology). From 2003 to 2009, she served on the Board of Directors of CH2M Hill, a $6B+ environment and infrastructure services firm. Carolyn also served on the Holcim US (cement/building materials) Board from 2004-2008. In 2004, she was elected to the board of State Farm Bank (IL) where she Chairs the ALCO (Asset Management Liability Committee).

Her prior work experience included senior positions at MarketXT, an e-commerce trading firm, Reuters America, IBM, Citibank, Macy's, AT&T and the US Departments of HUD and HEW.

Carolyn has served on a number of corporate advisory and non-profit boards including Independent Sector, Committee 100, White House Fellows Foundation, CED, NYC Outward Bound, and Redford Institute.

She received an MBA from the Harvard Business School and a BS in Management Engineering from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and was selected as a White House Fellow (America's most prestigious leadership development program).