

Kathy J. Tayon
Shareholder
Fowler White Boggs

---

KATHY J. TAYON, shareholder, practices in the areas of transactional, regulatory and operational based business and health care law. Her transactional work includes negotiating, documenting and closing a wide array of transactions including purchases, sales, reorganizations and mergers of physician practices, ambulatory surgery centers, assisted living facilities, home health agencies and other health care entities. Her regulatory work includes representing individuals and health care entities in determining compliance with Federal and State anti-kickback and self-referral laws and with respect to licensing and certificate of need matters, Medicare and Medicaid audits and investigations, and other regulatory matters. She provides representation with respect to operational matters for businesses.

Ms. Tayon began her professional career in 1991 as an Associate with Rogers, Towers, Bailey, Jones & Gay, P.A, in Jacksonville, Florida. Prior to joining Fowler White Boggs, she was a Partner with McDermott, Will & Emery in the Miami office. Kathy now practices out of the Fowler White Boggs Fort Lauderdale, Florida office.

Ms. Tayon has had numerous articles published in the Journal of Healthcare Compliance and has presented at several continuing medical education seminars. She is Board Certified in Health Law and was listed in The Best Lawyers in America, 2008-2009.

Ms. Tayon currently serves as Secretary for the Florida Chapter of the National Association of Corporate Directors.

Kathy earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting, with high honors, from the University of Florida in 1987 as well as a Masters degree in Accounting in 1990. During the same year, she earned her J.D., with honors, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. In 1991, she earned the distinction of LL.M. in taxation from New York University.